Subject: Request for Investigation – Alleged Civil Rights Violations, Racketeering Activities, and Entrapment Involving District Attorney Stephen A. Kunzweiler, City of Tulsa, and Other Parties, Case CV- 2024-2320, Tulsa County, Oklahoma

1. Purpose of This Request

I am writing to formally request an investigation into alleged civil rights violations and potential racketeering under 18 U.S.C. § 242 (Deprivation of Rights Under Color of Law), 18 U.S.C. §§ 1961–1968 (RICO), relevant Oklahoma statutes, and additional allegations of entrapment in case CF-2013-289, CF-2018-1116, and CV-2023-1583. These issues involve multiple parties in Tulsa County, Oklahoma, including District Attorney Stephen A. Kunzweiler, the City of Tulsa, various law enforcement officers, such as City of Tulsa Police Officer Mark Capron, Badge # 01823, and others.

2. Overview of Allegations, Tulsa Metro Area Planning Commission, Z-7770

1. Entrapment & Civil Rights Violations

- Case CV-2023-1583 (City of Tulsa v. August Wakat) and Protective Order 2022-2876 (involving Officer H.E. McCarty) suggest a pattern of false testimony, unauthorized home entry, and misuse of legal authority.
- Alleged phone tapping and failure to investigate legitimate complaints indicate possible due process violations.

2. Unresolved Homicide (David Gene Wilfong Jr.)

- Discrepancies exist in classifying Mr. Wilfong's death as self-defense despite evidence he was unarmed.
- Witness testimony (Mr. Robert Rainbolt) conflicts with the official narrative, raising concerns about investigative integrity.

3. Real Estate Fraud Sale of 15 Million Dollars (Lamar Sign)& Annexation Scheme Ordinance # 20244

- Case CV-2024-2320 (Tulsa County): Alleged fraudulent annexation of land involving Fair Oaks Ranch LLC, Frank Robson and Joe Robson, Ordinance #20244, Fraud Sale of 15M Lakeland Realty, Linda Ramsey, Broker number 18077, (918) 824-0290, Patrick Selcer of Lamar Sign, involving TMAPC, Nathan Foster and Sean Wallis Z-7770 (Request Police Report).
- Despite notice to D.A. Kunzweiler, there has been no action or official denial of these allegations(NO CRIME REPORT AVAILABLE).

4. Misconduct & Obstruction by City Officials

- Multiple instances of ignoring key evidence Officer Mark Capron (T23016128, dated September 27, 2023; phone warrant by Judge Gregory K. Frizzle, June 3, 2013).
- Alleged systematic dismissal of complaints, suggesting obstruction under color of law.

5. Mail Fraud Allegations, V.A. Altered Admission Paperwork

- December 19, 2024: A letter to the U.S. Postal Service Postmaster details concerns about potential mail fraud, filed in case CV-2024-2023.
- January 15, 2025: Tulsa County Court Clerk noted returned mail labeled "RETURN TO SENDER—NO SUCH NUMBER—UNABLE TO FORWARD" in Case CV-2024-2320, despite my correct address on file.
- Intake Officer, Dave Roberts, Crime Report taken by LT. Scott Catlett, Badge # 1159, (918) 557-3000 Report # 6232500061
- Janet, (888) 397-8387 VA Report Case # 13130296

3. Detailed Case References

- Case CV-2024-2320 (Tulsa County)

 - Affidavits/Letters: Dated December 10, 2024, and December 31, 2024, describing alleged misconduct.
 - Court Filings: Protective Orders, Subpoenas, Motions, and notices of refusal to investigate.

4. Why Federal Jurisdiction is Appropriate

1. Civil Rights Violations (18 U.S.C. § 242)

- Public officials allegedly abusing authority to deprive constitutional rights, including due process and freedom from unreasonable searches.

2. Racketeering (18 U.S.C. §§ 1961–1968 / RICO)

- Potentially organized real estate fraud and annexation schemes that may extend across jurisdictions, Houston County, Texas.

3. Mail Fraud Concerns

- Discrepancies in postal service records, suspicious returned mail, and conflicting statements in open court point to possible violations of federal mail statutes.

4. Lack of Local Investigation

- D.A. Kunzweiler and local agencies have not pursued or addressed these issues, indicating a need for impartial federal review.

5. Requested Actions

1. Immediate FBI Investigation

- Examine alleged civil rights violations, entrapment, unresolved homicide details, and racketeering.
- Investigate phone surveillance warrants, protective orders, and alleged real estate fraud, and banking fraud, American Heritage Bank, Article of Corporation have been altered.

2. Coordination with U.S. Department of Justice (Civil Rights Division)

- Assess whether a pattern or practice of misconduct exists among Tulsa officials.
- Determine whether charges under 18 U.S.C. § 242 or other statutes are warranted.

3. Inclusion of Mail Fraud Review

- Investigate the returned mail in Case CV-2024-2320 and claims of fraudulent address reporting.
- Evaluate the December 19, 2024 letter to the Postmaster outlining concerns about mail fraud.

4. Transparency & Accountability, Tulsa County, Oklahoma and Houston County, Texas

- Conduct interviews with D.A. Kunzweiler, law enforcement officers (e.g., Officer Capron, Officer McCarty), and witnesses (e.g., Michael Rider, Andrew Wilson, Mack Greever). Houston County D.A., Daphene Sessions, Cause# 23-03-00090, 23CR-246.
 - Review conflicting testimony and official records to identify any criminal wrongdoing.

6. Conclusion & Contact

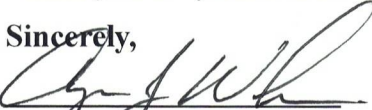

These allegations raise serious concerns about constitutional rights, the integrity of law enforcement and judicial processes, and potential mail fraud. I respectfully request the FBI's timely and thorough investigation to ensure fairness, accountability, and the public's trust in our justice system (20 day response at the time of receipt requested).
